

Meeting to mark the launch of the Third Report of the Lancet Commission on Liver Disease in the UK, focusing on Obesity and Alcohol Related Liver Disease

The Kohn Centre, Royal Society of London, Friday 16th December 2016

12.30-1.30pm	Registration and coffee
1.30-1.40pm	Welcome by Sir Ralph Kohn and introduction to the meeting Dr Richard Horton, Editor of The Lancet
1.40-2.00pm	Chairman, Professor Roger Williams, Mortality and disease prevalence of alcohol and obesity related liver disease Professor Nick Sheron and Professor Philip Newsome
2.00-2.20pm	Current costs to NHS and UK economy Dr John Holmes
2.20-2.35pm	Liver disease profiles for 533 Parliamentary constituencies Jan Maly
2.35-3.00pm	Roundtable: The Common Ground Dr Sarah Wollaston MP, Select Committee on Health; Sir David Amess, Baroness Randerson, Baroness Masham, APPG on Liver Health; Liam Byrne MP, APPG on Children of Alcoholics; Fiona Bruce MP, APPG on Alcohol Harm
3.00-3.20pm	Programmes of Public health England Duncan Selbie
3.20-3.30pm	General Discussion
3.30-4.00pm	Refreshment break
4.00-4.10pm	Chairman, Professor Sir Ian Gilmore Royal College of General Practitioners – earlier diagnosis and management Priorities programme
4.10-4.30pm	Practical issues Dr Jez Thompson
4.30-4.45pm	Implementation of new and planned NICE guidelines Professor David Haslam
4.45-5.00pm	Appropriate Commissioning by NHS England Dr Jonathan Fielden
5.00-5.45pm	Chairmen, Professor Ian Gilmore and Professor Roger Williams The Way Ahead – Roundtable with Dame Sally Davies (CMO, England); Michael McBride (CMO, Northern Ireland); Catherine Calderwood (CMO, Scotland); Frank Atherton (CMO Wales); Dame Carol Black (Department of Health Expert Advisor)
5.45pm	Concluding remarks Dr Richard Horton, Editor of The Lancet